
* domain shift: strangers are matched on the same scanner pair. Squared error gives the population mean rho = 1/2 whatever the genetic share, so it overtakes the MZ co-twin when the share is below 1/2.